

Critical & Creative Thinking Choice Board:

Enjoying the Month of March

Questioning

Which letter of the alphabet do you think is the loudest? Why? How would you convince that letter to be quiet?

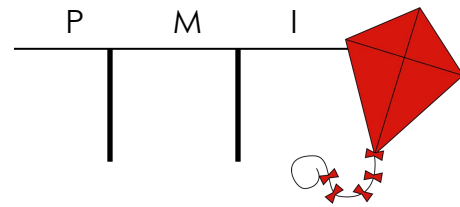

Fluency, Flexibility, Originality & Elaboration

March 11-15 is "National Bubble Gum Week". People have been chewing some type of gum since ancient Greek times. Think of ways to finish this: "I blew a bubble so big that..."

PMI

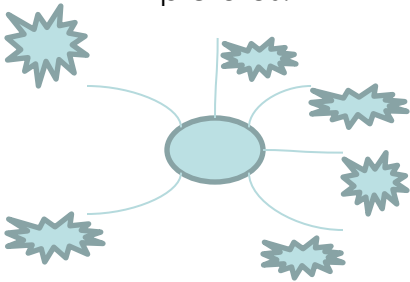

Plus, Minus, Interesting

What do you think the life of a kite is like? Create a PMI (plus, minus, interesting) chart on being a kite.

Mindmapping

This month we see so many new signs of spring. Create a mindmap about Spring! Be sure to include at least 6 pictures!

Visualization

What color is:
Laughter?
Strength?
Hope?
Success?
Failure?
Intelligence?

Draw an illustration of 3 of these ideas using the color you selected!

Point of View

March 14 is "Save a Spider Day". Some people hate spiders, but many are helpful to humans. Create a "Save the Spiders" public awareness ad to educate people about spiders.

Decisions and Outcomes

March 22 is "National Goof-Off Day". Write a persuasive paragraph which would convince your teacher that your class should celebrate the day by goofing off.

Encapsulations

March is "National Frozen Foods Month". Describe a time you were "frozen" with fear.

- 15 words or fewer;
- 10 words or fewer;
- 5 words or fewer.

Analogies

March is "Celebrate Music in Our Schools Month". Which musical instrument do you think your teacher is most like? Why? Explain your choice to him/her. Try this sentence stem:
My teacher is like a/the _____ because _____.